[redacted] information has been previously received indicating that the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions was scheduled to hold a conference in Mexico City during September, 1969, devoted to discussions of social and economic development in Latin America. The sponsoring group was reportedly very anxious to have Cuban representation at this conference.

Los Angeles should conduct sufficient investigation to verify subject's trip to Mexico and be alert for developments therefrom. Results should be furnished the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination accompanied by appropriate recommendations.

Los Angeles is also instructed to review its file concerning captioned individual to insure that data appearing on subject's Reserve Index, Section A card is current and correct. It would also appear from available information that subject, in the near future, will engage in considerable travel. Insure that responsible personnel are aware of this possibility and appropriate coverage is afforded to subject's activities.

NOTE:

Information has been recently received indicating that subject will succeed United States Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas as President of the Albert Parvin Foundation of Los Angeles. From a review of Bufile, it is not clear as to whether subject has accepted this position or has left his former position with the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions.
